

A NEW BOOK FROM THE AUTHOR OF ALL MINE! and ALL THEIRS!

TICKING CLOCK! is Noel's third book. It tells of his life from a 17 year old who volunteered for the LDV; the forerunner of The Home Guard before joining the Royal Navy through to the present day. As he says, "Every day seems full of happenings." He doesn't reveal the very sad incidents but there were many. Noel reckons he had a guardian angel with him when it was really necessary – when the wrong move would cause obliteration. Many memories are still vivid. TICKING CLOCK! tells of 117 events, many amusing and compelling reading. Life for Noel certainly hasn't been mundane and his clock is still ticking nicely at 83.
