A photograph of a beach with waves crashing onto the shore under a cloudy sky. The text "Order of Service" is centered over the image.

Order of Service

A serene beach scene with waves crashing on the shore and a path of footprints leading away from the water. The sky is overcast and the water is a pale blue-grey. The sand is a light tan color, and the footprints are dark and well-defined, leading from the foreground towards the horizon.

OPENING PRAYER

SCRIPTURE

HYMN

Eternal Father, strong to save,
Whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep:
O hear us when we cry to Thee
For those in peril on the sea.

O Christ, whose voice the waters heard
And hushed their raging at Thy word,
Who walkedst on the foaming deep,
And calm amid the storm didst sleep:
O hear us when we cry to Thee
For those in peril on the sea.

O Holy Spirit, who didst brood
Upon the waters dark and rude,
And bid their angry tumult cease,
And give, for wild confusion, peace:
O hear us when we cry to Thee
For those in peril on the sea.

O Trinity of love and power,
Our brethren shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
Protect them wheresoe'er they go:
Thus evermore shall rise to Thee
Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

William Whiting (1825-1878)

TRIBUTE

POEM

Mine-Disposal

D'you see the little socket,
To the left of that big sprocket?
Well, we've got to try and block it,
Being careful not to knock it.

Then by taking out the liner
Of the fulminated primer;
I will disconnect the timer
From the movement-switch-incliner.

If I snip the greenish wire
With my insulated plier
Perhaps she will misfire
And then I can retire.

If not -

We'll unscrew all the case-plates
(Coz they're awkward to replace, mates)
To reveal the pivot-face-gates
And the counterbalance base-weights.

After that, I'll cut the power.
How long will we allow'er?
Well, much less than an hour.
You can go and take a shower!

Then I'll cut the big red cable
(It makes the thing unstable)
Anyway, it's got a label
Says - "Cut here to disable"!

That should do it!

THANKSGIVING

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be Thy name;

Thy Kingdom come;

Thy will be done

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom,

the power and the glory,

for ever and ever.

Amen.
