31st October 2016

e-newsletter of The Diving Museum, No2 Battery, Stokes Bay, Gosport, PO12 2QU

That's All Folks, for 2016!

We are now closed to visitors until next Easter 2017. It has been wonderful, for us guides at the Diving Museum, meeting you, sharing our enthusiasm for Diving and answering your questions. We hope you enjoyed your visits. We will be spending the winter making sure our exhibits are bright and shiny for when you come again at Easter.

This is what we plan for next year:

THE DIVING MUSEUM EVENTS 2017

Parking in the adjacent carpark is 80p/hour.

Access to the museum is by a short flight of stairs. If you need assistance our volunteers are happy to help.

The Battery can be cool. Warm clothing is advisable, especially for evening events.

There are no toilets in the museum but public toilets and a café are right next door. (The café closes at 5 pm).

Regrettably, occasionally we may have to alter some of our planned events. Please check our website www.thehds.com/eventsdiary and our Facebook page (divingmuseumgosport) for details.
